

Wyoming School Foundation
Distinguished Alumnus/Master Teacher, 2005
Diane E. Shaver Clemens

Professor of American Diplomatic History
University of California, Berkeley
Wyoming High School Class of 1954

Wyoming High School Activities

Chorus, Choir, Forensics, National Forensic Contest, State Play, Eye, Yearbook, Y-Teens, Girls Athletic Association, Jr. Play, Future Teachers of America, Oxford Team

Fields of Concentration

US-Russian Diplomacy / World War II / Early Cold War / Vietnam / US Multicultural

Education

University of California, Santa Barbara, 1962-66, Ph.D., December 1966
University of Frankfurt, Germany, Research on Doctorate under
University of Goettingen, Germany Deutscher Akademische Austauschdienst
University of Cincinnati, 1959-60, M.A., Taft Fellow
University of Cincinnati, 1955-58, B.A. and B.S.
Wyoming High School, Wyoming, Ohio 1954
University of California Management, Summer, 1980
UCMI Institute, Management Certificate

Academic Employment

University of California, Berkeley, 1972 to present
Professor, American Diplomatic History
Associate Professor, California Institute for History Education
UCB Summer Institute, Faculty Coordinator for US History program for High School teachers 1986
Visiting Professor, Boston University Overseas MA Program in International Relations, co-head of Bonn Center Diplomatic Program for Diplomats in International Relations 1982-84
Visiting Luce Professor, The Colorado College September 1980
M.I.T., Assistant Professor of History 1966-72
Boston University, Lecturer, Russian History 1964-66
Santa Barbara City College, Lecturer in US History 1962-63
University of California Extension 1962-63
University of Hawaii, Lecturer 1960-61
Taft Teaching Fellow, University of Cincinnati 1959-60

Administrative Employment

Steering Committee, Peace and Conflict Studies, UCB 1985-2001
Board of Trustees, International College of Seville, Seville, Spain 1984-present
Faculty Assistant to the Chancellor, University of California, Berkeley 1980-82 on the status of Women
Assistant to Dean, East-West Center, Honolulu, Hawaii 1960-61

Publications (related to Yalta Summit Conference, 1945)

Yalta, Oxford University Press, 1970
Yalta, Paperback edition, Fall, 1972, rep. 1978
Keynote article, "Yalta: Conference of Victory and Peace." Yalta: Un Mitto Che Resiste.
Rome: Edizioni Dell 'Rome, 1989, 1-38
"Yalta," and "From War to Cold War." Yalta: 1945: Problems of War and Peace. Moscow: Russian Academy of Science, Institute for Military History of Defence of Russian Federation, 1992 (in Russian).
Yalta, published in: (1) book form – Korean translation, 1991; German translation, Koehler Verlag, Stuttgart 1973; Italian edition, 1976; (2) reprint – in "F.D.R. and Cooperation with the Soviet Union," selections in Warren Kimball, ed., Franklin Roosevelt and The World Crisis, 1937-1945; thirty pages of excerpts in Richard Fenno, ed., The Yalta Conference, D.C. Heath & Co., 1973; and numerous other excerpts by permission of Oxford Press.
"Yalta." Kodansha Encyclopedia of Japan, Japan, 1984, 296-7

Membership In Societies For Academic Honor

Phi Beta Kappa; Summa Cum Laude; Pi Delta Epsilon; Pi Sigma Alpha; Kappa Delta Pi; Tau Kappa Alpha: (in academics, speech, journalism, German, education, history).

Professional Groups

Member of Society of Historians of American Foreign Affairs (SHAFR); American Historical Association (AHA); Organization of American Historians (OAH); editorial advisory board for e-mail lists, H-Diplo, H-Russia, and H-German. 1992-1997 IREX Bi-Lateral Study Project on US-Soviet Relations of World War II Institute for International Studies (UCB) 2001-present member of Historical Advisory Committee to the State Department (reviews classification issues for on-going Foreign Relations of the United States Series, reports directly to SecState)