

Wyoming School Foundation
Distinguished Alumnus 2004

Mark “Hap” Fuller, Jr.
Retired Executive Vice President
Champion International Corporation
Wyoming High School Class of 1950

*now deceased

Wyoming High School Activities

Varsity letterman in football, basketball, baseball, and golf
Forensics, state champion in Oratorical Declamation
Member, National Honor Society
Class vice president, drama, chorus, Hi-Y, Corral, Eye, Yearbook

Princeton University Activities

Attended Princeton on Naval ROTC scholarship
Varsity letterman in baseball
Member, Glee Club
Co-Manager of Campus Fund Drive (with now senator Paul Sarbanes)
Graduated with Bachelor of Arts degree, history major

Military Career

United States Navy, 1954 to 1957

Business Career

Employee of Champion Paper from 1957 to 1996
Sales trainee/sales representative
Assistant to Vice President of Sales
Product Manager
Assistant Sales Manager
Vice President of Sales
Vice President General Manager
Executive Vice President
Member, Board of Directors, Graphic Arts Technical Foundation
President, Paper Distribution Council
Chairman, Printing and Writing Division of the American Paper Institute
Guest Lecturer, European Paper Industry Association and Canadian Pulp and Paper Association

Affiliations

Member of Advisory Board of Columbia University Graduate School of Business
Member and President of Board of Trustees, Xavier University of Louisiana
Member and President of Board of Trustees, New Canaan (Connecticut) Nature Center
Listee, Who's Who in America