

Wyoming School Foundation
Distinguished Alumnus 2012

Eric K. Mooney, M.D.
Attending Surgeon in
Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery
Wyoming High School Class of 1978

Education:

Wyoming High School Activities: National Honor Society 11-12; Class Vice President 12, National Merit Semi-Finalist 12, It's Academic 12, Ping Pong 12, Intramurals 9-10, Soccer 10, Cum Laude 12

Rose-Hulman, B.A. Chemical Engineering and Chemistry, 1982

University of Cincinnati College of Medicine M.D., 1986

Eastern Virginia Medical School: Internship, Residency: 1986-1991

Nottingham and Mansfield, England: Registrar in Surgery, 1991-1992

Mayfield Memorial Hospital, Cleveland: Trauma Locum, 1993-1994

University of Massachusetts Medical Center: Fellowship, Plastic Surgery 1994-1996

Life Achievements

1997 – Present: Attending Plastic Surgeon, Bassett Hospital, Cooperstown, NY

1998 – Present: Assistant Professor of Surgery, Columbia University, NY

1995 – Present: Resurge and C.H.A.N.G.E. – charitable medical missions dedicated to delivering reconstructive surgery to impoverished children worldwide; involved in multiple roles as team member, team leader, chief surgeon and trip leader. Dr. Mooney has traveled to: Peru, Vietnam, India, China, Honduras, Ecuador, Brazil, and Bangladesh

1993 – Present: Board Certified, Diplomate of the American Board of Plastic Surgery

1996 – 1997: Instructor, University of Massachusetts Medical Center

1997: Visiting Surgeon, University of Innsbruck, Austria

Awards

2002: Rose- Hulman Institute of Technology, Outstanding Alumni Award, 2002

1997: Mitch Kaplan memorial Award for excellence in resident training, Lenox Hill Hospital, New York City

“Golden Apple” award of best subspecialty teaching surgeon, MIBH, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009

Community Involvements

2010 – Present: Food Pantry Board

2005 – Present: Youth Soccer Coach

2008, 2010 Youth Baseball Coach